

Cookie Policy

This website uses cookies to ensure its proper functioning and to provide you with the best possible experience.

Cookies are small text files that are stored on your device when you visit a website. They help the website function correctly and can also be used to provide certain features or display external content.

What types of cookies do we use?

Essential cookies

These cookies are necessary for the website to function properly. They enable basic features such as page navigation and secure access to the site.

The website cannot function correctly without these cookies.

Essential cookies do not require your consent.

Third-party cookies

This website includes embedded content from third-party services, such as YouTube.

When you view pages containing embedded YouTube videos, cookies from Google/YouTube may be placed on your device. These cookies are used by YouTube to provide video playback and may also collect usage data in accordance with their own privacy policies.

We do not control these cookies. Their use is governed by the privacy policies of the respective third-party providers.

Newsletter subscription

If you choose to subscribe to our newsletter, you will be redirected to an external subscription page operated by MailerLite.

MailerLite may place its own cookies in accordance with its privacy and cookie policies.

Event registration

Event registration is handled via an external Google Forms link.

When you access Google Forms, Google may process data and use cookies according to its own privacy and cookie policies.

How can you manage cookies?

You can control and manage cookies through your browser settings.

Most browsers allow you to block or delete cookies, or to be notified when cookies are being used.

Please note that disabling certain cookies may affect the functionality of the website or embedded content.
